Dear Mr. and Mrs. Olson;

Staff is in receipt of your email request, as attached, to be placed on an upcoming Aitkin County Board agenda. The issue has been reviewed with Commissioner Mark Wedel, Chairperson of the County Board and he agrees that it is not appropriate at this time. The County Board discussed this request on June 26th and decided not to issue your agency the contract in question. At this time the facts have not changed so there is no reason to revisit the issue.

It is important to note that staff is in contact with the Minnesota Department of Health discussing your facility and the possible need of such a contract. Please work with Tom Burke, HHS Director (218-927-7200) to properly process any such contract.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

Patrick Wussow
Aitkin County Administrator

Subject: the next board meeting scheduled for next tuesday

Dear Patrick,

We are requesting to be on the next board meeting that is scheduled for next tuesday. This is Chappy's Golden Shores, and we are requesting to discuss and have our contract reinstated. We have 4 clients that have been screened, and are needing assistance under the elderly waiver services, with the home and community based waiver contract. The screens have been completed, and they are in need of services, and this is where they have decided they want to live and we are a qualified provider to provide services to these residents. We would like to have our contract, to be able to not violate the social security act, where our seniors have a right to care, and be provided for.

thank you,

Keith and Theresa Olson
Chappy's Golden Shores
