Aitkin County Habitat for Humanity Annual Report 2017

Building Business Partnerships

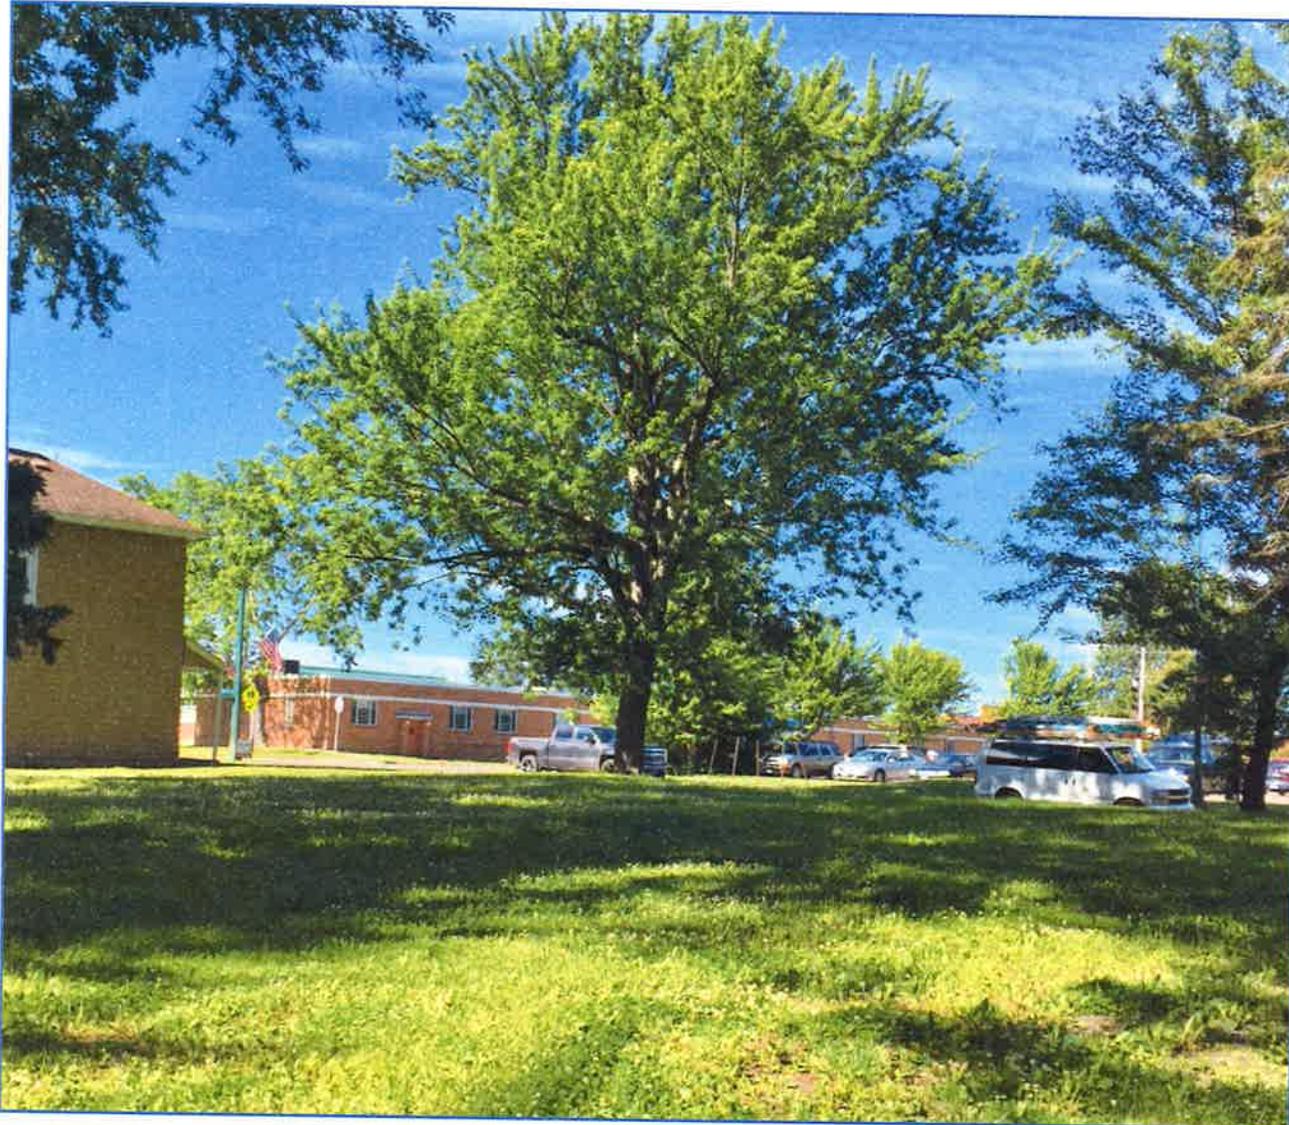

Words from the director Ann Schwartz

Building on businesses. . .

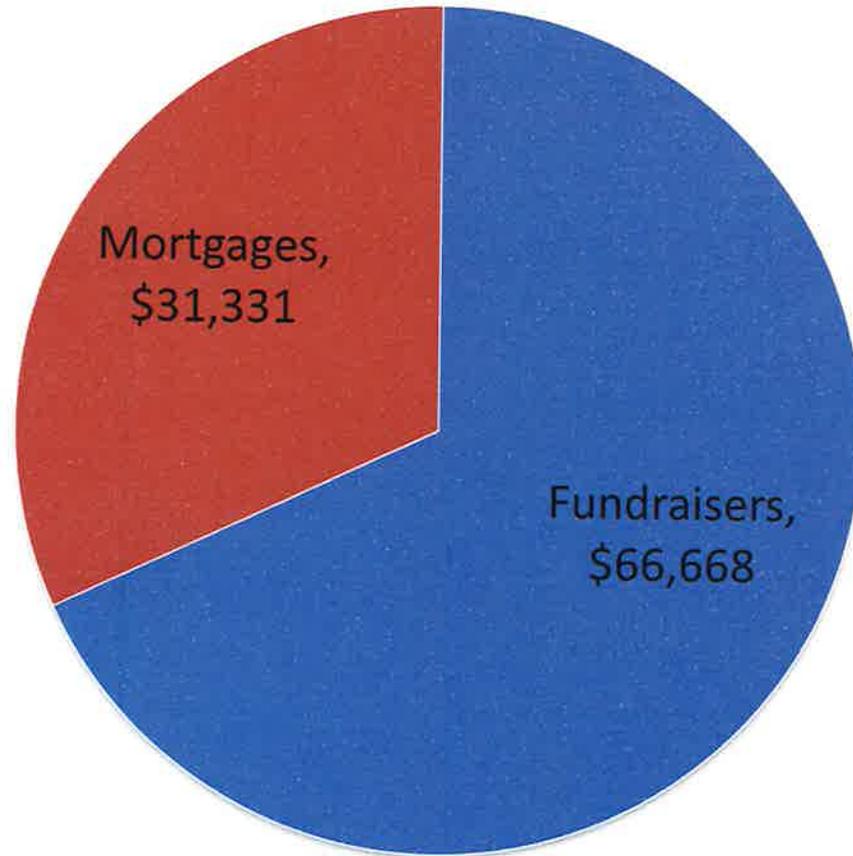

When Aitkin County Habitat for Humanity updated our strategic plan in 2016 we made a commitment to partner with local businesses. We cemented those partnerships by connecting with new business partner donors, joining in the Aitkin Chamber of Commerce winter show and co-sponsoring a Business After Hours event in August along with Neighborhood National Bank of Aitkin. On the cover, David Scott, Habitat president; mingles with Doyle Jelsing, president of the Neighborhood Bank and Bruce Ahlgren, an ambassador for Enbridge. Here, Ann Schwartz, director, accepts a check from CEO Mike McMahon from a new business partner – Federated Co-ops.

Our lots at 210 and 218 Minnesota Avenue South

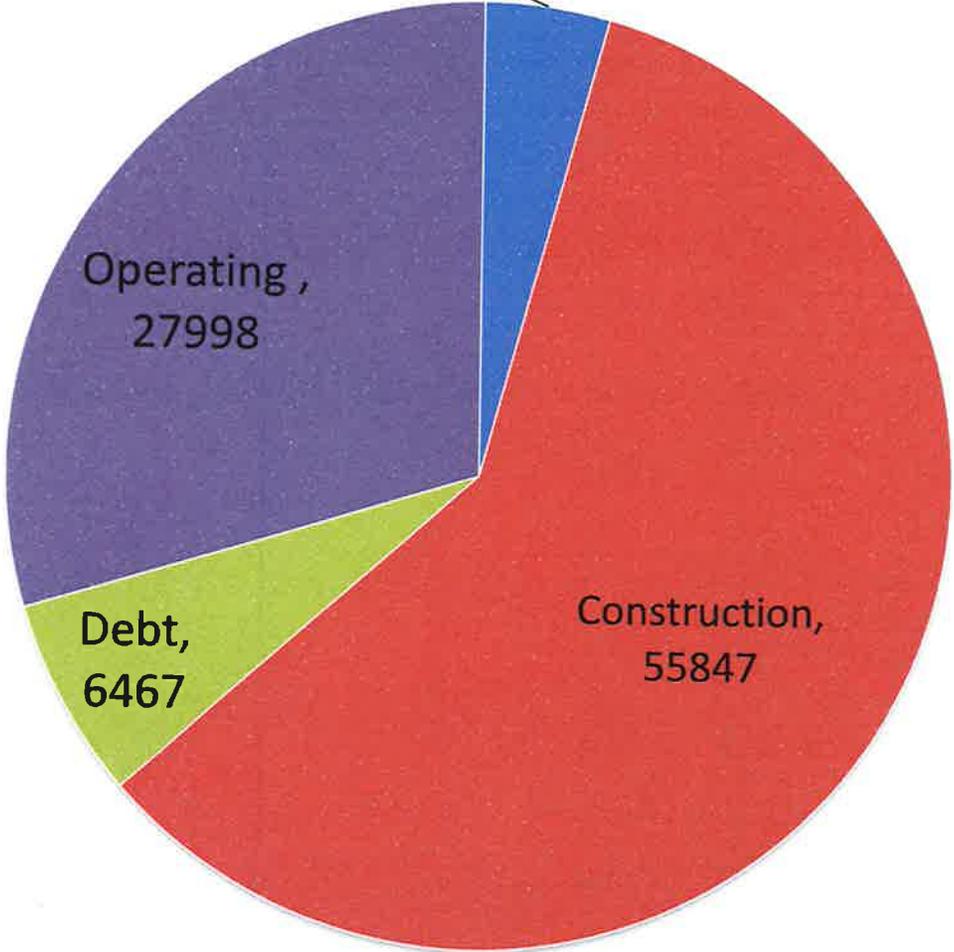

Our new lots are right on Hwy. 169 in Aitkin. We'll build one new home in 2018 and a second home on the adjoining lot when funds are raised.

Income 2017 $97,999

Expenses 2017 $94,342

Mission,
4030

Cans turn into house money

Recycle your aluminum cans in trailers at Paulbeck's in Aitkin and Ukura's in McGregor. McGregor trailer available May-November only. Trailer is at Red Door Resort winter of 2017-18.

These cans brought in $2,316 in 2017 to build houses.

Let's add your beer and pop cans to the mix.
