Summary of Issue: The ordinance committee has been reviewing the current Shoreland Ordinance in an effort to identify possible areas of revision to bring forward to the Board of Commissioners for consideration. Paul Radomski from the MN DNR office will present an overview of water quality efforts at a state-wide level. Staff will review the process for consideration of changes with the Board and gather any feedback they have to bring to the ordinance committee. No action or specific changes will be considered at this time. If any changes are brought forward in the future, they will include an opportunity for public comment at that time.
